SOCIETY

By MRS. RIVENBURGH.

of the second week in November, taking place at a house ceremony. Miss Hall will be maid of honor, Mrs. William Thornton White serving the bride elect as matron of honor.

Mrs. Harold Dillingham, who has been enjoying a visit with her mother, Mrs. Hyde-Smith, and her sister, Mrs.
Baldwin Wood has been the fete guest at innumerable small affairs since her arrival from small affairs none were more interesting than the bridge party and informal reunion yesterday at which Miss Marian and Miss Elizabeth Newhall presided. Although the occasion was informal there were over a score of guests to greet the visitor. Another reunion with the same guest of honor will be given Thursday, to which Miss Mary Keeney has bidden a number of friends to pass the afternoon at her home in Buchanan street and meet Mrs. Dillingham.—S. F. Call Mrs. Baldwin Wood was hostess at a luncheon on Tuesday of last week in honor of her sister, Mrs. Harold Dil-lingham of Honolulu.—Argonaut.

A false rumor appeared in a recent issue of the San Francisco Chronicle, to the effect that Miss Alice Roth of Honolulu was engaged to a young army officer of Fort Shafter, which placed both unoffending parties in a humorous position. Well, even reporters can get things twisted, this said!

On the fourteenth of last month Dr.
Westervelt lectured on Hawaii at Washburn College, Topeka, Kansas, for the benefit of the students and the talk was illustrated by beautiful lantern slides. Dr. Westervelt is expected home from San Francisco on the twenty-eighth of this month.

The day just past was primarily a day for luncheons and dinner parties, for although every one was in town for the parade there was the opportunity for informal reunions over a menu and many of the visitors in the city were entertained at the homes of their friends.

Mrs. Harold Dillingham, who has been visiting here from Honolulu and has been extensively entertained during her stay, was the complimented guest at a luncheon given yesterday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. James Keeney in Buchanan street, when Miss Mary Keeney presided as hostess.

Among those who were bidden to meet the visitor were: Mrs. Baldwin Wood, Miss Martha Calhoun, Mrs. G.
Cadwalader, Mrs. Orville Pratt, Miss Marion Zette, Miss Florence Hopkins, Miss Jeannette Gaillois.—S. F. Call.

Rev. Walter Frear, father of Governor Frear of Hawaii, who was at one time pastor of the local Congregational Church is here at the Conference, and is the guest of Dr. F. W. Bliss, as is Rev. W. W. Ferrier, editor of the Pacific Congregationalist.—Santa Cruz Surf.

Hon. John G. Woolley has arrived from Honolulu, and is at the Grand Lodge of Good Templars. He is one of the leading temperance orators of the world.—Santa Cruz Surf.

John R. Parsons, of Hilo, Hawaii, who is a brother of Circuit Judge Parsons of Hawaii, is visiting Embert M.
Brown.—Santa Cruz Sentinel.

Walter Gifford Smith gave a delicious little dinner at the St. Francis the other night in honor of Princess David Kawananakoa of Honolulu where Mr. Smith formerly resided. Others among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Smith, Mrs. Marie L.
Walton and Charles Pendleton. Their table was attractively ornate with American Beauty roses.—S. F. Post.

Mrs. Harold Dillingham, who was pretty Margaret Hyde-Smith, is receiving a very hearty welcome since her arrival here from Honolulu, and all manner of gay parties are being given in honor of the chic little matron. Mrs.
Dillingham will stay here till after Christmas as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Hyde-Smith. The stork visited the Dillinghams eight months ago and left a beautiful baby, which remains at Honolulu with Mr. Dillingham.—S. F. Wasp.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baldwin, leaders in Honolulu society and well known here are at the Fairmont with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kittredge also from the Islands.—S. F. Post.

their return they will reside in Palo Alto, where Elwell has a home.

Mr. Elwell's mother and step father, Mr. and Mrs. Tudor are the proprietors of the Lennox and the "Gresham" two of the largest hotels in Brisbane, Australia, and they and Mr. Elwell are well known in Honolulu, having passed through several times on their way round the world.

Willis Davis and his daughter, Mrs.
Pierre Moore, have gone to Santa Barbara for several weeks. Mr. Davis has been suffering from a nervous breakdown and is planning a trip to Honolulu. Accompanied by John Gamble the artist, he will sail some time in November for the Islands.—Chronicle.

Miss Elizabeth Leslie Wight departed on the Alameda for the mainland whence she will journey on to Norway, to be married to her fiance Herr Alfred J. Hurum, a very noted musician and composer.

Before her departure Miss Wight compiled and had published a volume entitled "The Memoirs of Elizabeth Kinna Wilder" an interesting document relating to the many varied and unique experiences of her grandmother.

The exhibition of the Kilohana Art League opened with a reception and picture exhibit on Thursday evening, and was well attended. Each year Honolulu people look forward to the new and wonderfully pretty things done by our clever artists during the months preceding the exhibit. Yesterday morning was the opening of the sale for Christmas, and many ladies attended to buy, or if not, to admire the lovely dainty articles placed on tables arranged about the reception hall, and in charge of Miss Schaefer, new manager of the League, Mrs.
Jones, and Miss Parke whose artistic work and verses are much in evidence. The hall was decorated with festoons of bamboo, and willow, interspersed with double red Hibiscus blossoms making a striking and artistic effect. The tables displayed some perfect little gems of gifts to send away to friends or adorn one's own home. There were hand embroidered undergarments so dear to the feminine wardrobe, from two dollars up. There were pieces of hand painted china at all prices; scenes painted in oils of Hawaii on everything imaginable, from picture frames to bookmarks. There were verses by Mrs. Frear and Miss Parke all fringed round with perfect little artistic fluffy ruffles of designs; ribbon winders with Diamond Head on the sides; markers with cocoanut trees on a blue satin ribbon for only thirty-five cents; embroidered bags in a riot of colors for a dollar and a half; some rare lace made by the girls of the Kamehameha School in Battenberg, and in pillow work which is done on large pillows and by the aid of bobbins. And collars of this, mind you ladies, for two dollars. A most beautiful and perhaps one of the most striking work in oils was a bunch of red Ixora blossoms at the entrance.

The ladies who as yet have not had an opportunity of seeing these lovely things may still have a chance as the sale and exhibition is on throughout this afternoon.

Everybody is looking forward to that lovely affair to be given at the Out-rigger club on Friday evening, November the nineteenth. It is in the nature of a "Chowder Dance" and supper, and promises to be the prettiest affair of the season. The dancing lanai, out in mid-stream will be a bower of Japanese lanterns, flags, ferns, and everything that makes for gaiety. The committee wishes it understood that fifty cents gains entrance to the grounds, and will entitle the purchaser to the excellent supper, which will be served from six to eight o'clock. For admission to the dancing pavilion, an extra charge of twenty-five cents will be required, making seventy-five cents in all, for a most enjoyable evening.

Besides this, there will be installed a candy booth, and lemonade stand, where these extra dainties may be bought reasonably enough to tempt all.
It is hoped that everyone who can, will come along and have a splendid time. Remember the affair is under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary of the Outrigger Club, of which Mrs. F. M.
Swanzy is the President, and we all know what these ladies are capable of doing. The evening will be, from all indications, a huge success, both financially and socially, and you will all miss one of the treats of the season, who do not attend. Don't forget the date! It is Friday evening next, and the tickets are now on sale by all the members of the Outrigger Club.

Mrs. Emma Dreier was hostess at a dinner last Tuesday evening in honor of Miss M. Wallenstein, of San Francisco. The hospitable home "Ulanian" is always lovely, but on Tuesday it was lovelier than ever. The house was decorated with palms and cut flowers, and about twenty-four guests were welcomed within its portals. The table supported a vase of American Beauty roses as a centerpiece, and the dainty place cards represented quaint figures in water colors. After an elaborate dinner, the guests formed motor parties and took in the town and surrounding parts.

Mr. W. D. Adams who has been confined to his home for some time with a nervous break down is out again, and is receiving the sympathies of his host of friends.

Arbor Day proved a very successful one all round. To the unenlightened, he it understood that Arbor Day is a Territorial institution, and the local organ of the idea here to have a general understanding of Conservation work organized committee to undertake the movement in connection with Arbor Day in the schools. A great amount of work has been done and all schools both public and private, have been visited and moved to take an interest in the idea. Through Governor Frear and Mr. Babbitt, the public schools were brought into it. Mail matter concerning it has been sent all over through the other islands, and Hilo proved very enthusiastic.

Mrs. Dillingham, Mrs. Wilder, Mrs.
Swanzy, and Mrs. Frear spoke at the schools and several others also had words to say regarding conservation work.

Mrs. Swanzy and Mrs. Rees as representatives of Conservation Work made very impressive speeches.

There will be some lively times ahead for tennis enthusiasts in the event of a tournament, as Mrs. Renton Hind of Kohala, and Miss Miriam Hall, who made such an enviable record here a few weeks ago returned in the Mauna Kea this morning. They and Mr. and Mrs. John Hind are registered at the Pleasanton.

Professor Henry B. Crampton, Mrs.
Crampton, and their daughter, Miss Helen of New York are stopping over in Honolulu, on their return trip round the world. They are registered at the Pleasanton.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Davidson arrived in the Alameda from the coast, and are stopping at the Pleasanton. They intend to make Honolulu their future home.

There is to be a dance this evening at the Moana Hotel for the officers and ladies of the transport, and townspeople.
It promises to be a very enjoyable affair, as all the hops at the hotel by the sea are eagerly anticipated by the young men and girls of Honolulu, as well as the older residents.

Invitations are out for a dance next Monday evening on board H. M. S. Bedford by the officers of the ship.

The Society Editor has just received from one of the largest firms in the states a catalogue in English, and a letter explaining it in Spanish. After all, the Eastern people are as a class, rather in the dark yet about us here.

Two new hulas "Hanalei," and "Leilehu" are now on sale in all the music stores.

The committees in charge of the dance at the Outrigger Canoe Club are as follows:
Executive Committee—Mesdames F.
M. Swanzy, G. P. Rees, J. H. Soper, and
E. I. Spalding.

Chowder—Mesdames A. Fuller, S. G.
Wilder, C. P. Wilder, Richard Ivers, S.
Ballou, E. C. Waterhouse.

Rolls and Sandwiches—Mesdames J.
Gilmann, C. B. Wood, Philip Wenner.

Cakes—Mesdames C. H. Atherton, E.
T. P. Waterhouse, Allen White.

Coffee—Mesdames Eben Low, George Woodruff, C. Holloway.

Candy—Mesdames R. G. E. Forster, and E. T. Simpson, Mattemoiselle Gras.
Lemonade and Ice Cream Soda—Mesdames Arthur Berg, Brainerd Smith and Miss Irmgard Schaefer.

The tickets are being sold by all the members of the Club, and each member of the Club and the Auxiliary is giving an impulse to the event by purchasing a ticket. The price of the tickets is fifty cents.

Mrs. Richard Ivers, who has recently returned from Honolulu, left a few days since for Philadelphia, where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Edward Moore Robinson.—S. F. Argonaut.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bishop, of Honolulu, whose lavish hospitality is typical of the best social life of the islands, have been warmly greeted by their many local friends since their arrival at the St. Francis.—S. F. News Letter.

On the afternoon of Arbor Day there was a Basket Lunch Party of about one hundred people, and it proved a huge success in every way. The afternoon was perfect, clear skies and sunshine prevailing throughout. The affair was informal, and strictly horticultural, and agricultural. Professor Gilmore, of the College of Hawaii, accompanied by the teaching staff, the pupils of the college, and their families some of the regents, and all the horticulturists and agriculturalists of Honolulu spent the afternoon on the new campus of the College, at Manoa.

After arriving, the guests were served lemonade when the party adjourned to a large tent which had been erected to view the exercises. A graceful tribute of welcome was rendered the new college by the girls of Kawanao Seminary their neighbors, fifty of whom, accompanied by Miss Boaher, came over and sang a song as the opening number entitled Arbor Day.

The next number was a little song celebrating the planting of the first tree on the new site the words of which were composed by Mrs. W. M. Graham.
Prof. Hosmer spoke on Conservation, and Arbor Day, approving the afternoon and expressing pleasure to be with them. Mr. Young gave an address on behalf of the faculty. Mr. Leslie Clark responding for the pupils and dwelling on the friendly relation existing between them and the teachers.

"America" was sung by all guests, after which the first tree was ceremoniously planted by Mr. Pope, the instructor of Botany at the College. The second was planted by Mrs. A. Gartley the wife of one of the regents, and other trees were staked out. There is a delightful stream on the premises from which will issue the water supply of the college, and after viewing the splendid site the guests repaired to the big tent which had been elaborately decorated with the College flags by Miss Chipman and partook of a delicious supper. The committee in charge consisted of Prof. Gilmore, Mrs. Graham, Mr. Pope, Mr. Clark.

There is a football match this afternoon, between the Punahou and College of Hawaii.

An interesting fact which was revealed on Arbor Day was that concerning the importation of Date and Royal Palms into Hawaii. Many people have been puzzled to know just how these beautiful trees which are now a feature of these islands came to be here at all. It seems that Dr. Judd who was the grandfather of Mrs. F. M.
Swanzy, by the way, had put some seeds of the Royal Palm in his coat pocket in his travels through Jamaica and one day in shaking the coat after reaching Honolulu these fell out, the result being what now Honolulu people boast as the most stately and beautiful of all their lovely trees. This incident happened about seventy-one years ago. Mr. Severance, then American Consul to these islands, and grandfather of Mr. W. C. Parkes, planted the first date palm.

The invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Damon, as follows:
Mr. and Mrs. Francis William Damon Request the honor of your presence At the marriage of their daughter Violet Hopper

to
Dr. Frank Lawrence Putman
On Tuesday evening, the twenty-third of November 1909.
At Eight O'clock.

Central Union Church Honolulu, T. H.
This is to be one of the prettiest weddings ever seen in Honolulu. The ushers are Mr. McKinnon, Sherwood Lowrey, Frederick Lowrey, Harold Castle, George Brown and Dr. Hedemann, Mr.
Rice of Kaula, acting as best man.

The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Vera Damon and Miss Beatrice Castle as Maids of Honor, while the bridesmaids are Miss Alice Roth, Miss Alice Hedemann, Miss Perrin, Miss Nora Sturgeon, and Miss Elso Schaefer. They will be attired in varied shades of palest green.

After the ceremony there will be a reception at the home of the bride's parents Monahua.

On Wednesday morning the members of the Morning Music Club met at the old school hall at Punahou for their monthly recital. The programme was as usual excellent, and as follows:

Capricciose Brillante for two pianos Miss Sheffield
Fugue—A biographical sketch—Mrs. Potwine Song—Mrs. E. Wilder Ave Maria—Mesdames Waterhouse, Atherton, Kinney, Love, Lindsay.

Piano Duo—Overture to Midsummer Night's Dream—Misses Stevens Trio—I Waited for the Lord—Mesdames Mott-Smith, Weight and Walbridge.

Piano Solo—Duet—Miss Wertmuller Kingslee—Two pianos—Mrs. C. Cooke and Miss Elsa Schaefer.
Mrs. Love and Mrs. Richard Cooke.

Captain Berger and his boys are again with us and it seems good to hear them again especially since the genial bandmaster has brought back some of the very latest hits. On last Thursday evening a band concert was given at the Young Hotel Roof Garden and a good audience fully appreciated the music. Some very dainty and odd selections were rendered everything entirely new.

The engagement is announced of Miss Heilbron, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Heilbron and Mr. Edwin O. Child of San Francisco, formerly manager of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel and well known in Honolulu.
Miss Heilbron is one of Honolulu's belles, being a beautiful girl, and very popular. Mr. Child is travelling representative of the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco, and will return shortly to the metropolis. His bride elect intends to leave in the "Mongolia" sailing from here on December
